DETAILED ACTION

1. Applicant's amendment dated April 8, 2008, responding to the Office action mailed January 8, 2008 provided in the rejection of claims 1-14, wherein claims 1-3, 5-8, and 10-12 have been amended, claim 14 was canceled, and claims 15-20 are new.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1-13 and 15-20 are allowed.

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The cited prior art taken alone or in combination fails to suggest

"... providing ... suites ... configured to execute on the one or more computing devices using a different test harness;

... converting ... suites to a common representation that is executable using a common test harness;

... transferring ... converted suites ... to ... computing devices ... by ... computing device using said common test harness.", as recited in independent claims 1, 6 and 11 respectively; and the arguments as Applicant pointed out on page 6, last paragraph; page 7, second full paragraph and the last paragraph in REMARKS of the amendment dated April 8, 2008)

Therefore, the claimed invention can provide a new mechanism for transforming different test suites, written for different test harnesses, into a common XML-type format that can be read by one test harness.

4. Claims 2-5, 7-10, and 12-20 are considered allowable by virtue of their dependence on allowable independent claims 1, 6, and 11 respectively.
5. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
